TWO VOICES.

A Southern Volunteer.

Yes, I fought with Stonewall
And faced the fight with Lee;
But if this here Union goes to war,
Make one more gun for me
I didn't shrink from Sherman,
As he galloped to the sea;
But if this here Union goes to war,
Make one more gun for me!

I was with 'em at Manassas—
The bully Boys in Gray;
I heard the thunderers roarin'
Round Stonewall Jackson's way; And many a time this sword of mine
Has blazed the way for Lee;
But if this old nation goes to war,
Make one more sword for me!

I'm not so full o' fightin'
Nor half so full o' fun,
As I was back in the 60's
When I shouldered my old gun;
It may be that my hair is white—Such things, you know, must be.
But if this old Union's in for war,
Make one more gun for me!

I hain't forgot my raisin'— Nor how, in sixty-two,
Or thereabouts, with battle shouts,
I charged the Boys in Blue;
And I say: I fought with Stonewall,
And blazed the way for Lee.
But if this old Union's in for war,
Make one more gun for me!

Atlanta Constitution.
His Northern Brother,
Just make it two, old fellow,
I want to stand once more Beneath the old flag with you
As in the days of yore
Our fathers stood together

And fought on land and sea
The battles fierce that made A nation of the free.

I whipped you down at Vicksburg;
You licked me at Bull Run;
On many a field we struggled,
When neither victory won.
You wore the gray of Southland,
I wore the Northern blue;
Like men we did our duty
When screaming bullets flew.

Four years we fought like devils,
But when the war was done Your hand met mine in friendly clasp.
Our two hearts beat as one.
And now when danger threatens,
No North, no South, we know.
Once more we stand together
To fight the common foe.

My head, like yours, is frosty—Old age is, creeping on;
Life's sun is slowly sinking,
My day will soon be gone.
But if our country's honor Needs once again her son, I'm ready, too, old fellow—
So get another gun.

RICKARD SUED.

James T. Boyd, an attorney of this city, this afternoon filed a suit against G. L. (Tex) Rickard for $372.82 for services as an attorney for Rickard. He alleges in the complaint that he incorporated certain companies for Rickard and that the amount named is a reasonable attorney fee for the work.

And now Dr. Wiley, the pure and that they are bred to do it.

We are glad to know that it is not their fault.

NEW MILL FOR BONNIE CLAIRE

The enlarged milling plant of the New Bonnie Claire Mining company is expected to be a factor in the development of the Bullfrog district. A relatively low rate of reduction is to be offered to other operators of the district, it is said, and, with the high percentage of saving assured, market will be provided for ores which have not heretofore brought profitable returns.

The crushing capacity of the old mill has been doubled, there being 20 stamps now, and other improvements have been added in bringing the plant up to the modern standard of efficiency. For a time the mill will be operated upon custom ores exclusively, for the company's mine, which is several miles from the mill, will not be in position to supply it until after the completion of the company's railways and tramways.

Manager Trumbo of the New Bonnie Claire company, was at Needles last week inspecting the work of wrecking the nine miles of narrow gauge railroad which that company purchased from the Needles Smelting company. The material will be used to build eight miles of railroad, connecting the Bonnie Claire properties with the Tonopah and Tidewater railroad.

DRILLING OLD HOLES.

One of the most dangerous practices in mining is the habit of drilling or picking into old bottoms of drill holes.

"These old bottoms of 'bootlegs,' as they are labelled in the west," says the Canadian Mining Journal, "are due to the hole not breaking to bottom when blasted. Miners frequently take advantage of these old holes to start a new hole. If a residue of dynamite happens to remain in the 'bootleg' there is a funeral. This fact, however, does not appear to discourage other searchers after short cuts to the future world."

"During the session of 1909, the Ontario government passed an amendment to the mining act forbidding the drilling or insertion of any metal tool into a hole that had been blasted. This, naturally, does not restrain the careless miner.

But it furnishes to the mine manager the means of controlling and punishing his men."

WOULD MAINTAIN RACE TRACK

George Wilson and Will Cahalan are taking considerable interest in the matter of establishing a half-mile racing course near the old depot west of town. The interest shown in the exciting races on the afternoon of the Fourth has put the movement on foot and it is expected that for next Sunday a race between Sorrel Tom, the winner of Monday's race, and Patsy, owned by Kibby and Johnson, will be arranged. There is considerable rivalry between the owners of these horses.

George Wilson is arranging to take a force to the track some night this week to scrape the course, lengthen and put in shape for coming events.—Goldfield News.
